Dated at Wellington this 6th day of July 2015.

Hon Michael Woodhouse,
Minister of Police.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the notice, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This notice, which comes into force on 13 July 2015, is given under the Land Transport Act 1998. This notice amends the notice that specifies the matters that must be stated in a certificate of compliance for an evidential breath-testing device that is a Dräger 7510NZ. The amendment increases from 6 to 12 months the maximum period permitted between the date on which a certificate of compliance is issued and the date by which a test result must be obtained.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2012.

Date of notification in Gazette: 9 July 2015.

This notice is administered by the New Zealand Police.
