Explanatory note

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order, which comes into force on 1 November 2016, imposes a levy on chicken eggs produced in New Zealand for sale. The levy is payable to the Egg Producers Federation of New Zealand Incorporated (the Federation). A person that buys more than 100 chicks and either produces eggs for sale or rears chicks for the purpose of supplying them to persons that produce eggs for sale (a producer) is primarily responsible for paying the levy.

This order is a confirmable instrument under section 47B of the Legislation Act 2012. It is revoked at the end of 31 December 2017, unless earlier confirmed by an Act of Parliament. That stated time is the applicable deadline under section 47C(1)(b) of that Act. Even if confirmed in that way, under section 13 of the Commodity Levies Act 1990 this order will be revoked with the close of the sixth anniversary of the day before the day on which it was made, unless revoked earlier or extended under section 13(2) of that Act.

This order replaces the Commodity Levies (Eggs) Order 2010, which expires on 31 October 2016.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.
Date of notification in Gazette: 22 September 2016.
