Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 28 September 2017, amend the Immigration (Carriers' Information Obligations) Regulations 2010 (the principal regulations).

These regulations amend regulations 4 and 6 of the principal regulations to expand the obligations for the provision of information by a carrier or person in charge of a commercial craft by requiring that information must be provided in relation to persons who intend to board a craft travelling from New Zealand in addition to those who intend to board a craft travelling to New Zealand. The regulations also amend regulation 4 to add the place at which a person checked in to commence travel to or from New Zealand to the information that must be provided.
