Explanatory memorandum

This memorandum is not part of the determination, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

- 1 The Remuneration Authority Act 1977 requires the Remuneration Authority (the Authority) to set remuneration for members of Parliament by—
 - reference to the change in ordinary time weekly earnings for full-time equivalent (FTE) employees in the public sector as determined by Statistics New Zealand's Labour Market Statistics Quarterly Employment Survey (QES); and
 - the amount of any change in the personal benefit or potential personal benefit that the Authority is required to take into account under section 16(2)(b) of the Members of Parliament (Remuneration and Services) Act 2013.

The formula to be used is set out in section 18B of the Remuneration Authority Act 1977.

- 2 The change in the ordinary time weekly earnings for FTE employees in the public sector between 2016 and 2017 was 2.46%. This is calculated by comparing—
 - the average ordinary time weekly earnings for FTE employees in the public sector as determined by the QES for each of the 4 quarters of the

- period ending 30 June 2016, added together and divided by 4 ($1,393.61); and
- the average ordinary time weekly earnings for FTE employees in the public sector as determined by the QES for each of the 4 quarters of the period ending 30 June 2017, added together and divided by 4 ($1,427.86).
- 3 The changes in amounts of personal benefit or potential personal benefit arising from any changes in entitlements as a result of a determination made by the Authority, directions issued by the Speaker, or a determination made by the Minister Responsible for Ministerial Services under the Members of Parliament (Remuneration and Services) Act 2013 during the year ended 30 June 2017 have been assessed as nil.
- 4 The change in QES has been applied according to the formula in the Remuneration Authority Act 1977. With a nil change in the amount of personal benefit or potential personal benefit arising from any changes to entitlements during the past year, this has resulted in salary increases of 2.46%.
- 5 Since 2002, members have been entitled to a tax-free allowance intended to cover out-of-pocket expenses incurred in the pursuit of parliamentary business, which may include—
- (a) the entertainment of visitors, staff, constituents, and officials; and
 - (b) memberships, sponsorships, and fees; and
 - (c) koha; and
 - (d) donations and raffle tickets; and
 - (e) gifts and prizes; and
 - (f) flowers (excluding wreaths for public commemorative events); and
 - (g) passport photos; and
 - (h) briefcases and luggage; and
 - (i) meals.
- This allowance has, as in previous years, been increased by the New Zealand Consumers Price Index movement to 30 June 2017 (1.7%).
- 6 As required by section 17A of the Remuneration Authority Act 1977, the Authority consulted with the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Minister responsible for Ministerial Services, and the Commissioner of Inland Revenue before finalising this determination.
- 7 This determination is effective from 1 July 2017 and expires on 30 June 2018. As the QES information for the year ended 30 June 2017 that is required for the formula was released on 2 August 2017, the determination could not be finalised earlier.
