Determination

1 Title

This determination is the Judicial Salaries, Allowances, and Superannuation (Court Martial Appeal Court and Court Martial) Determination 2018.

2 Commencement

This determination is deemed to have come into force on 1 January 2018.

3 Expiry

This determination expires on 31 December 2018.

4 Interpretation

(1) In this determination, unless the context otherwise requires,— appointed Judge of the Court Martial Appeal Court means a Judge of the Court Martial Appeal Court appointed under section 3(1)(b) of the Court Martial Appeals Act 1953

Judge of the Court Martial includes the Chief Judge and a Deputy Chief Judge

new GSF scheme means the new Government service superannuation scheme established under Part 2A of the Government Superannuation Fund Act 1956 retirement scheme means a retirement scheme as defined in section 6(1) of the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013, other than the new GSF scheme year means a period of 12 months ending on 31 December.

(2) In this determination, a Judge of the Court Martial is presumed to act on a part-time basis unless he or she performs the functions of that office for 226 or more full working days in a calendar year.

5 Salary and allowance of appointed Judge of Court Martial Appeal Court

- (1) The salary and allowance payable to an appointed Judge of the Court Martial Appeal Court are set out in Schedule 1.
- (2) For the purpose of calculating the salary payable for a period during which an appointed Judge of the Court Martial Appeal Court acts on a part-time basis, the daily rate is the yearly rate of salary applicable to that Judge divided by 226 pro-rated in proportion to the amount of the day worked.

6 Salaries and allowances of Chief Judge and other Judges of Court Martial

- (1) The salaries and allowances payable to the Chief Judge and the other Judges of the Court Martial are set out in Schedule 2.
- (2) For the purpose of calculating the salary payable for a period during which a Judge of the Court Martial acts on a part-time basis, the daily rate is the yearly rate of salary applicable to that Judge divided by 226 pro-rated in proportion to the amount of the day worked.
- (3) This clause does not apply to a District Court Judge who is also appointed a Judge of the Court Martial.

7 Superannuation rights of appointed Judge of Court Martial Appeal Court

An appointed Judge of the Court Martial Appeal Court is not eligible for the payment of any superannuation subsidy.

8 Limited application of clause 9

Clause 9 does not apply to a Judge of the Court Martial who—

- (a) is also a District Court Judge; or
- (b) acts on a part-time basis; or
- (c) is a current contributor under Part 5A of the Government Superannuation Fund Act 1956; or
- (d) is a current contributor to the new GSF scheme.

9 Eligibility of Judge of Court Martial for subsidy on contributions to retirement scheme

- (1) A Judge of the Court Martial who chooses to contribute to a retirement scheme is eligible to have a subsidy paid on his or her contribution.
- (2) The maximum amount of superannuation subsidy (inclusive of any tax liability) that is payable in any year is 20% of the gross salary actually paid to the Judge in that year.
- (3) In order to qualify for a superannuation subsidy, the contribution that the Judge must make to the retirement scheme, when expressed as a ratio of the superannuation subsidy to the Judge's contribution, is 5:1.

10 Other judicial determinations do not apply

To avoid doubt, nothing in the Judicial Salaries and Allowances (2017/18) Determination 2017 or the Judicial Superannuation Determination 2006 applies to the appointed Judges of the Court Martial Appeal Court or to the Chief Judge and other Judges of the Court Martial (other than those Judges who are also District Court Judges).

11 Revocation

The Judicial Salaries, Allowances, and Superannuation (Court Martial Appeal Court and Court Martial) Determination 2017 (LI 2017/80) is revoked.

Explanatory memorandum

This memorandum is not part of the determination, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This determination sets the salaries, allowances, and superannuation rights and obligations of appointed Judges of the Court Martial Appeal Court and the Chief Judge and other Judges of the Court Martial.

The Remuneration Authority has set the salaries for Judges at what it considers to be the appropriate rate for full-time positions. Judges acting on a part-time basis will be paid for the time they act, calculated on a pro rata basis as a proportion of the salary payable to a Judge acting on a full-time basis. Note the salary divisor for calculating the part-time daily rate, in clauses 4(2), 5(2), and 6(2) of this determination, has changed from 230 pro-rated in proportion to the amount of the day worked to 226 pro-rated in proportion to the amount of the day worked. The new divisor is based on 260 working days per year minus 34 days (being 23 annual holidays and 11 statutory holidays).

The increases in remuneration reflect the movement in salaries for serving Judges, which took effect from 1 October 2017, as set out in the Judicial Salaries and Allowances (2017/18) Determination 2017.

The Judges, when fulfilling their statutory roles, continue to incur expenses in the running of their private practices. The Authority has accordingly specified allowances to be paid as a contribution towards the costs incurred by Judges in maintaining their practices while carrying out their statutory functions. The Authority this year reviewed the allowances applicable to each judicial position and has left them at their current level, which was set following a review in 2014. However, all judicial officers' allowances, remuneration, and superannuation benefits are currently under review by the Authority. The Authority expects to complete this review during the first half of 2018. If any results of the review are applicable to the Judges of the Court Martial Appeal Court and the Court Martial, this determination could be amended retroactive to 1 January 2018.

This determination is for a year from 1 January 2018. The making of the determination was delayed beyond the expiry of the previous determination in order to allow the Remuneration Authority to carry out preparatory work on the determination. The determination expires on 31 December 2018.
