COVID-19 Public Health Response (Exemption from Vaccination Requirements for RSE Workers)
Revocation Notice 2021

Explanatory note

2021/430

Hon Chris Hipkins,
Minister for COVID-19 Response.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the notice, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This notice revokes the COVID-19 Public Health Response (Exemption from Vaccination Requirements for RSE Workers) Notice 2021 (the principal notice) on 1 January 2022.

The principal notice, subject to certain conditions,—

- exempts employees of Recognised Seasonal Employers (RSE workers) who arrive in New Zealand from Samoa, the Solomon Islands, Tonga, or Vanuatu from the vaccination requirement in clause 7E of the COVID-19 Public Health Response (Air Border) Order (No 2) 2020; and
- exempts air carriers that carry RSE workers to New Zealand from the evidence-checking requirement in clause 7F of that order.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.

Date of notification in Gazette: 21 December 2021.

This notice is administered by the Ministry of Health.
