Regulations

1 Title and commencement

- (1) These regulations may be cited as the Tokelau Coinage (Commemorative Coins) Regulations 1987.
- (2) These regulations shall come into force on the day after the date of their notification in the Gazette.

2 Tokelau 1984 Souvenir Dollar and Five Dollars

- (1) There shall be made and issued, pursuant to the Decimal Currency Act 1964, a commemorative coin to be known as the Tokelau 1984 Souvenir Dollar, and a commemorative coin to be known as the Tokelau 1984 Souvenir Five Dollars, both of which shall be legal tender only in Tokelau.
- (2) The design for the coins shall be as follows:
 - (a) for the obverse impression, the effigy of Her Majesty the Queen in profile wearing a diamond tiara of festoons, scrolls, and collets, with the words "TOKELAU 1984" appearing between the border pattern and the top of the effigy. A border pattern around the periphery of the coins shall consist of 18 groups of 3 dots (each group representing the 3 atolls of Tokelau):
 - (b) for the reverse impression, a Tokelauan outrigger sailing canoe with the effigies of 4 Tokelauan men, 3 sitting in the canoe and 1 standing on the front cross-piece connecting the outrigger to the canoe, and an islet in the background, the expression "$1" or "$5", as the case may require, above the effigy of the standing man, and the words "TAHI TALA" or "LIMA TALA", as the case may require, within the periphery of the bottom of the coins.

3 Tokelau 1988 Souvenir Five Dollars

- (1) There shall be made and issued, pursuant to the Decimal Currency Act 1964, a commemorative coin to be known as the Tokelau 1988 Souvenir Five Dollars, which shall be legal tender only in Tokelau.

- (2) The design for the coin shall be as follows:
- (a) for the obverse impression, the effigy of Her Majesty the Queen in profile wearing a diamond tiara of festoons, scrolls, and collets, with the words “TOKELAU 1988” appearing between the border pattern and the top of the effigy. A border pattern around the periphery of the coin shall consist of 18 groups of 3 dots (each group representing the 3 atolls of Tokelau):
 - (b) for the reverse impression, the effigy of a Tokelauan man holding a spear in a throwing position with an islet in the background, the Olympic torch to the right of the effigy and above the islet, the expression “$5” to the right of the effigy and below the islet, and the words “XXIV OLYMPIC GAMES” and “LIMA TALA” around the periphery of the coin.

4 Standard composition, diameter, and weight

Except as provided in these regulations, all the provisions of—

- (a) the Decimal Currency Act 1964 relating to the standard composition of the one-dollar coin; and
- (b) the Coinage Regulations 1967 (SR 1967/104) relating to the one-dollar coin—shall apply to the Tokelau 1984 Souvenir Dollar, the Tokelau 1984 Souvenir Five Dollars, and the Tokelau 1988 Souvenir Five Dollars.

C J Hill,
Acting for Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations prescribe the designs for the Tokelau 1984 Souvenir Dollar, the Tokelau 1984 Souvenir Five Dollars, and the Tokelau 1988 Souvenir Five Dollars, which are to be made and issued as commemorative coins to be legal tender only in Tokelau.

The issue of the 1984 coins will complete the series of annual coins which have been issued since 1978. The delay in issuing the 1984 coins is due to delays in issuing the 1983 coin. The 1988 coin is to commemorate the 1988 Olympic Games.

Provisions relating to the standard composition, diameter, and weight of coinage are contained in the Decimal Currency Act 1964 and the Coinage Regulations 1967 (SR 1967/104), both of which are in force in Tokelau.

The obverse impression of all 3 coins provided for in these regulations uses the Machin design for the effigy of Her Majesty. The reverse impressions are illustrated below.

Notes1 General

This is a reprint of the Tokelau Coinage (Commemorative Coins) Regulations 1987. The reprint incorporates all the amendments to the regulations as at 11 December 1987, as specified in the list of amendments at the end of these notes.

Relevant provisions of any amending enactments that contain transitional, savings, or application provisions that cannot be compiled in the reprint are also included, after the principal enactment, in chronological order. For more information, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/reprints/>.

2 Status of reprints

Under section 16D of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, reprints are presumed to correctly state, as at the date of the reprint, the law enacted by the principal enactment and by the amendments to that enactment. This presumption applies even though editorial changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in the reprint.

This presumption may be rebutted by producing the official volumes of statutes or statutory regulations in which the principal enactment and its amendments are contained.

3 How reprints are prepared

A number of editorial conventions are followed in the preparation of reprints. For example, the enacting words are not included in Acts, and provisions that are repealed or revoked are omitted. For a detailed list of the editorial conventions, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/editorial-conventions/> or Part 8 of the Tables of New Zealand Acts and Ordinances and Statutory Regulations and Deemed Regulations in Force.

4 Changes made under section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989

Section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 authorises the making of editorial changes in a reprint as set out in sections 17D and 17E of that Act so that, to the extent permitted, the format and style of the reprinted enactment is consistent with current legislative drafting practice. Changes that would alter the effect of the legislation are not permitted. A new format of legislation was introduced on 1 January 2000. Changes to legislative drafting style have also been made since 1997, and are ongoing. To the extent permitted by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, all legislation reprinted after 1 January 2000 is in the new format for legislation and reflects current drafting practice at the time of the reprint.

In outline, the editorial changes made in reprints under the authority of section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 are set out below, and they have been applied, where relevant, in the preparation of this reprint:

- omission of unnecessary referential words (such as “of this section” and “of this Act”)
- typeface and type size (Times Roman, generally in 11.5 point)
- layout of provisions, including:
 - indentation
 - position of section headings (eg, the number and heading now appear above the section)
- format of definitions (eg, the defined term now appears in bold type, without quotation marks)
- format of dates (eg, a date formerly expressed as “the 1st day of January 1999” is now expressed as “1 January 1999”)

- position of the date of assent (it now appears on the front page of each Act)
- punctuation (eg, colons are not used after definitions)
- Parts numbered with roman numerals are replaced with arabic numerals, and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- case and appearance of letters and words, including:
 - format of headings (eg, headings where each word formerly appeared with an initial capital letter followed by small capital letters are amended so that the heading appears in bold, with only the first word (and any proper nouns) appearing with an initial capital letter)
 - small capital letters in section and subsection references are now capital letters
- schedules are renumbered (eg, Schedule 1 replaces First Schedule), and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- running heads (the information that appears at the top of each page)
- format of two-column schedules of consequential amendments, and schedules of repeals (eg, they are rearranged into alphabetical order, rather than chronological).
