State Insurance Act (Vesting) Order 1990

(SR 1990/142)

Paul Reeves, Governor-General

Order in Council

At Wellington this 25th day of June 1990

Present:
His Excellency the Governor-General in Council

Pursuant to section 6 of the State Insurance Act 1990, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following order.

Note
Changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in this reprint.

A general outline of these changes is set out in the notes at the end of this reprint, together with other explanatory material about this reprint.

This order is administered by the Treasury.

Order

1 Title

This order may be cited as the State Insurance Act (Vesting) Order 1990.

2 Interpretation

Terms and expressions used in this order have the same meanings as in the State Insurance Act 1990.

3 Appointment of date for vesting of State Insurance undertaking in State Insurance Limited

28 June 1990 is hereby appointed as the date on which the State Insurance undertaking shall vest in State Insurance Limited.

Marie Shroff,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

Section 6 of the State Insurance Act 1990 provides that on a date to be appointed by the Governor-General by Order in Council, the State Insurance undertaking shall vest in State Insurance Limited. This order appoints 28 June 1990 as the date on which the State Insurance undertaking shall vest in that company.

A consequence of the order is that sections 22, 23, and 24 of that Act come into force on that date.

Section 22 repeals section 208(2) of the Income Tax Act 1976 which provides that the State Insurance General Manager is liable to income tax in the same manner as a company to which subsection (1) of that section applies.

Section 23 makes consequential amendments to the enactments specified in Schedule 1 of the State Insurance Act 1990.

Section 24 repeals the enactments specified in Schedule 2 of that Act.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.
Date of notification in Gazette: 26 June 1990.

Notes

1 General

This is a reprint of the State Insurance Act (Vesting) Order 1990. The reprint incorporates all the amendments to the order as at 27 June 1990, as specified in the list of amendments at the end of these notes.

Relevant provisions of any amending enactments that contain transitional, savings, or application provisions that cannot be compiled in the reprint are also included, after the principal enactment, in chronological order. For more information, see http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/reprints/.

2 Status of reprints

Under section 16D of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, reprints are presumed to correctly state, as at the date of the reprint, the law enacted by the principal enactment and by the amendments to that enactment. This presumption applies even though editorial changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in the reprint.

This presumption may be rebutted by producing the official volumes of statutes or statutory regulations in which the principal enactment and its amendments are contained.

3 How reprints are prepared

A number of editorial conventions are followed in the preparation of reprints. For example, the enacting words are not included in Acts, and provisions that are repealed or revoked are omitted. For a detailed list of the editorial conventions, see http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/editorial-conventions/ or Part 8 of the Tables of New Zealand Acts and Ordinances and Statutory Regulations and Deemed Regulations in Force.

4 Changes made under section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989

Section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 authorises the making of editorial changes in a reprint as set out in sections 17D and 17E of that Act so that, to the extent permitted, the format and style of the reprinted enactment is consistent with current legislative drafting practice. Changes that would alter the effect of the legislation are not permitted.

A new format of legislation was introduced on 1 January 2000. Changes to legislative drafting style have also been made since 1997, and are ongoing. To the extent permitted by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, all legislation reprinted after 1 January 2000 is in the new format for legislation and reflects current drafting practice at the time of the reprint.

In outline, the editorial changes made in reprints under the authority of section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 are set out below, and they have been applied, where relevant, in the preparation of this reprint:

- omission of unnecessary referential words (such as "of this section" and "of this Act")
- typeface and type size (Times Roman, generally in 11.5 point)
- layout of provisions, including:
  - indentation
  - position of section headings (eg, the number and heading now appear above the section)
- format of definitions (eg, the defined term now appears in bold type, without quotation marks)
- format of dates (eg, a date formerly expressed as "the 1st day of January 1999" is now expressed as "1 January 1999")

- position of the date of assent (it now appears on the front page of each Act)
- punctuation (eg, colons are not used after definitions)
- Parts numbered with roman numerals are replaced with arabic numerals, and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- case and appearance of letters and words, including:
  - format of headings (eg, headings where each word formerly appeared with an initial capital letter followed by small capital letters are amended so that the heading appears in bold, with only the first word (and any proper nouns) appearing with an initial capital letter)
  - small capital letters in section and subsection references are now capital letters
- schedules are renumbered (eg, Schedule 1 replaces First Schedule), and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- running heads (the information that appears at the top of each page)
- format of two-column schedules of consequential amendments, and schedules of repeals (eg, they are rearranged into alphabetical order, rather than chronological).
