Regulations

Part 1

Preliminary provisions

1 Title and commencement

- (1) These regulations may be cited as the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Regulations 1996.
- (2) These regulations shall come into force on 1 July 1996.

2 Interpretation

- (1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,— the Act means the Domestic Violence Act 1995 adult protected person means a protected person who is not a child applicant, other than in Part 2, means a person or organisation who applies under these regulations to be approved as a programme provider approval means approval—
 - (a) as a programme provider to provide a programme; and
 - (b) of a programme

approval panel means the approval panel established under regulation 46 authorised person means a person authorised by an approved agency to provide a programme for the agency authority, in Part 2 of these regulations, means an authority given pursuant to section 29 of the Act

chief executive means the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice child means a person who is under the age of 17 years; but does not include a person who is or has been married, in a civil union, or in a de facto relationship client group means one of the following groups of people to whom a programme may be provided:

- (a) adult protected persons;
- (b) protected persons who are children;
- (c) respondents and associated respondents

direction means a direction made under section 32 of the Act

domestic violence offence means any offence that consists of or includes conduct that is domestic violence group programme means a programme intended for presentation to a group of people individual programme means a programme intended for presentation to an individual person individual programme provider means a person approved by an approval panel to provide a programme personally (whether a group programme or an individual programme) protected person, in relation to a protection order, means—

- (a) the person for whose protection the order is made;
- (b) any child of that person's family;
- (c) any person for whose benefit the order applies pursuant to a direction made under section 16 of the Act protection order,—

- (a) has the same meaning as it has in section 2 of the Act; and
- (b) includes any order that is deemed, by section 133(3) of the Act, to be a protection order; and

- (c) for the purposes of regulation 15, includes any order of a similar nature made under any corresponding previous enactment working day means any day of the week other than—

- (a) Saturday, Sunday, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, the Sovereign's birthday, and Waitangi Day; and
 - (ab) if Waitangi Day or Anzac Day falls on a Saturday or a Sunday, the following Monday; and
 - (b) a day in the period commencing with 25 December in any year and ending with 2 January in the following year.
- (2) Where any expression used in these regulations is not defined in these regulations but is defined in the Act, then unless the context otherwise requires, that expression has, in these regulations, the meaning given to it in the Act.

Regulation 2(1) approval panel: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 3(1) of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

Regulation 2(1) chief executive: amended, on 1 October 2003, pursuant to section 14(2) of the State Sector Amendment Act 2003 (2003 No 41).

Regulation 2(1) child: amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 12 of the Relationships (Statutory References) Act 2005 (2005 No 3).

Regulation 2(1) region: revoked, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 3(2) of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

Regulation 2(1) working day paragraph (ab): inserted, on 1 January 2014, by section 8 of the Holidays (Full Recognition of Waitangi Day and ANZAC Day) Amendment Act 2013 (2013 No 19).

Part 2

Provision of programmes

Programmes for protected persons

3 Form of request

Every request made under section 29 of the Act to a Registrar to authorise the provision of a programme must,—

- (a) be included on an application for a protection order; or
- (b) where the request is made after the making of a protection order, be made in the form for the time being approved by the chief executive.

4 Programmes for adults

- (1) Subject to section 29(4) of the Act and to subclause (2), where a request is made under section 29 of the Act in relation to an adult protected person, the Registrar must authorise the provision of a group programme to that person.
- (2) If no group programme is available or appropriate for the protected person, the Registrar must authorise the provision of an individual programme to that person.

5 Programmes for children

- (1) Subject to section 29(4) of the Act, where a request is made under section 29 of the Act in relation to a protected person who is a child, the Registrar must authorise the provision, to that child, of—
 - (a) a group programme; or
 - (b) an individual programme.
- (2) Where—
 - (a) the Registrar authorises the provision of a programme to a child; and
 - (b) on completion of the initial interview, the programme provider considers that the programme is not appropriate for that child,— the programme provider must notify the Registrar.
- (3) On receiving notification pursuant to subclause (2), the Registrar must authorise the provision of another programme to that child, unless—
 - (a) the request has been withdrawn; or
 - (b) the programme provider has recommended that some other course of action, other than referral to a programme, is appropriate to assist the child to deal with the effects of domestic violence.

6 Number of programme sessions

Where a Registrar authorises the provision of a programme to a protected person, the number of programme sessions that may be provided to that person are the number of sessions specified in respect of that programme by the approval panel when approving that programme.

7 Programme provider to provide report on completion of programme

- (1) Where a Registrar authorises the provision of a programme to a protected person, the programme provider must, within 14 days after—
 - (a) the programme concludes; or
 - (b) the protected person ceases to attend the programme,—whichever is the earlier, notify that fact to the Registrar.
- (2) The notice given under subclause (1) must be in the form for the time being approved by the chief executive.

Programmes for respondents and associated respondents

8 Number of programme sessions

- (1) Where, in a direction, the court, pursuant to section 33(1)(a)(i) of the Act, specifies the number of sessions that a respondent or an associated respondent must attend in each month, the number of programme sessions so specified must be the number of sessions specified in respect of that programme by the approval panel when approving that programme.
- (2) Where, in a direction, the court,—
 - (a) pursuant to section 33(1)(a)(ii) of the Act, states that the respondent or associated respondent must attend the programme for 1 session in each month and for such other session or sessions in each month as the programme provider may from time to time specify; or
 - (b) pursuant to section 33(1)(a)(iii) of the Act, states that the respondent or associated respondent must attend the programme for such number of sessions as the programme provider may from time to time specify,—the number of sessions that the programme provider so specifies must not exceed the number of sessions specified in respect of that programme by the approval panel when approving that programme.

9 Notice of time and place of first programme session

- (1) Where, in a direction, the court states, pursuant to section 33(1)(b)(ii) of the Act, that the programme provider is to arrange the date on which, and the time and place at which, the respondent or associated respondent is to attend the programme for the first time, any notice given to that person by the programme provider pursuant to section 35(b) of the Act must be given, in writing, in one of the following ways:

- (a) by leaving the notice with the person, or, if that person does not accept it, by putting it down in that person's presence and bringing it to his or her notice;
 - (b) by sending the notice by ordinary post addressed to the person at—
 - (i) the address for service given for the purposes of the proceedings to which the direction relates; or
 - (ii) that person's last known or usual place of residence in New Zealand;
 - (c) if the address for service given for the purposes of the proceedings to which the direction relates is the office of a lawyer, and that lawyer has a number to which documents may be sent by facsimile transmission, by transmitting the notice to that lawyer by facsimile transmission;
 - (d) in such other manner as the court directs.
- (2) Where a notice is sent by post in accordance with subclause (1)(b), the notice is deemed to have been duly given on the earlier of—
- (a) the fifth working day after the day on which it was so posted; or
 - (b) the day on which it was received.
- (3) Where a notice is sent by facsimile transmission in accordance with subclause (1)(c), the notice is deemed, subject to subclauses (4) and (5), to have been duly given on the second working day after the day on which it was so transmitted.
- (4) Where a notice is transmitted to a facsimile number after 5 pm on any day, then, subject to subclause (5), that notice is deemed to have been duly given on the second working day after the day on which the notice is received in a complete and legible condition.
- (5) A notice transmitted to a facsimile number is deemed to have been received in a complete and legible condition unless,—
- (a) the contrary is shown; and

- (b) as soon as practicable after the transmission is concluded, the person to whom the notice was transmitted notifies the person who transmitted the notice that the notice was incomplete or illegible, or both, when it was received.
- (6) Where a notice is sent by facsimile transmission in accordance with subclause (1)(c), the lawyer to whom the notice was transmitted must, on receiving the notice, immediately give to the person by whom the notice was sent an acknowledgement, in writing or by facsimile transmission, that the notice has been received and must include in that acknowledgement a statement of the date of receipt.

10 Other notices

- (1) Every notice given under section 39(1) of the Act that a respondent or an associated respondent has failed to attend a programme must be in the form for the time being approved by the chief executive.
- (2) Every notice given under section 40 of the Act that a programme has concluded must be in the form for the time being approved by the chief executive.

Information for programme providers

11 Information to be provided to programme providers

- (1) Where the Registrar notifies a programme provider—
 - (a) that, pursuant to section 29 of the Act, the Registrar has authorised the provision of a programme to a protected person; or
 - (b) that, pursuant to section 32 of the Act, the court has directed a respondent or an associated respondent to attend a programme,—the Registrar must also—
 - (c) forward to the programme provider a copy of the protection order in respect of which the authority was given or, as the case requires, the direction was made; and
 - (d) ensure that the programme provider is notified of—
 - (i) the information specified in subclause (2); and

- (ii) such other information as the court directs in any particular case.
- (2) Subject to subclause (3), the Registrar must ensure that the programme provider is notified of such information as is available to the Registrar in respect of the following matters:
 - (a) in relation to domestic violence used by the respondent or the associated respondent, or both,—
 - (i) when the domestic violence first began:
 - (ii) the nature of the domestic violence on which the application for the protection order was based:
 - (iii) the frequency with which domestic violence was used before the making of the protection order:
 - (iv) whether domestic violence was used against any child of the applicant's family, and, if so, the nature of that domestic violence:
 - (b) the length of the relationship between the applicant and respondent:
 - (c) whether the parties to the application have been parties (or some of the parties) to any previous application under the Act or any corresponding previous enactment:
 - (d) whether allegations of drug abuse or alcohol abuse have been made in the course of the proceedings:
 - (e) where the protection order is a temporary order, whether the order has been served:
 - (f) in any case where—
 - (i) an authority has been given; or
 - (ii) a direction has been made—in relation to any other person who is a party to the proceedings or is a protected person under the protection order, the name and contact address of the programme provider to whom that other person has been referred.
- (3) Where—
 - (a) any of the information to which subclause (1) applies is not available at the time the information is required to be notified to the programme provider, but subsequently becomes available; or
 - (b) the Registrar subsequently receives information that is additional to, or different from, the information initially notified to the programme provider in accordance with that provision,— the Registrar must ensure that the programme provider is notified, as soon as practicable, of the information that has become available or, as the case may be, that additional or different information.

Part 3

Approval of programme providers and programmes

Applications for approval

12 Chief executive may call for applications

- (1) The chief executive may call for applications from persons or organisations (whether incorporated or unincorporated) who wish to be approved as programme providers.
- (2) Without limiting subclause (1), the chief executive may call for applications from persons or organisations (whether incorporated or unincorporated) who wish to be approved as programme providers in respect of particular client groups.

Regulation 12: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 4 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

13 Applications for approval as programme providers

- (1) Every application for approval as a programme provider must be made in writing to the chief executive.
- (2) Every application must be set out in 2 parts.
- (3) Part 1 must contain the following information relating to the applicant:
 - (a) the full name and address of the applicant;
 - (b) whether the applicant is a person applying for approval as an individual programme provider, or is an organisation applying for approval as an approved agency that may authorise persons to provide programmes in accordance with the terms of its approval;
 - (c) any other information that will assist the chief executive or approval panel, as the case may be, in assessing whether or not the applicant meets the requirements of regulations 15 and 16 (in the case of an application for

- approval as an individual programme provider) or regulations 21 and 22 (in the case of an application for approval as an approved agency):
- (d) whether, in the case of an application for approval as an individual programme provider, unconditional approval or approval subject to conditions is sought and, if conditional approval is sought, the nature of the proposed conditions.
- (4) Part 2 must contain the following information relating to the programme that the applicant wishes to provide:
- (a) the client group to which the programme relates;
 - (b) any other information that will assist the approval panel or chief executive, as the case may be, in assessing whether the programme meets the requirements of regulation 26;
 - (c) whether the programme is designed as a group programme or as an individual programme, or both;
 - (d) if the programme is designed as a group programme, the proposed size of the group.
- (5) Every application must also contain any other information reasonably required by the chief executive or the approval panel to enable the chief executive or the approval panel to perform the chief executive's functions or the approval panel's functions.
- (6) If, in the same application, an applicant applies for approval as a programme provider in respect of—
- (a) 2 or more client groups; or
 - (b) 2 or more programmes,—
- the applicant must include the information that is sufficient to enable the chief executive or the approval panel, as necessary, to assess the application in relation to each client group or each programme, as the case may be.

Regulation 13: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 4 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

13A Assessment of applications of individuals by chief executive

- (1) The chief executive—

- (a) must assess, under subclause (2), an application for approval as an individual programme provider that is made in response to a call for applications under regulation 12:
 - (b) may, but need not, assess, under subclause (2), an application for approval as an individual programme provider that is not made in response to a call for applications under regulation 12.
- (2) If an application for approval as an individual programme provider is assessed by the chief executive, the chief executive must refer it to the approval panel if the applicant satisfies the chief executive, by the production of any information that the chief executive reasonably requires, that the applicant meets the requirements of regulations 15(3) and 16.
- (3) For the purposes of subclause (2), the chief executive may, instead of requiring the applicant to produce further information, rely on—
 - (a) any previous determination made by the chief executive in connection with a previous application by the applicant that the applicant meets the requirements of regulations 15(3) and 16:
 - (b) any previous determination made by an approval panel before the commencement of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 in connection with a previous application by the applicant that the applicant meets the requirements of regulations 15(3) and 16.
- (4) If the chief executive decides, under subclause (1)(b), not to assess an application or if the application is assessed under subclause (2) but the chief executive is not satisfied that the applicant meets the requirements of regulations 15(3) and 16 and the chief executive does not instead refer the application to the approval panel under regulation 18(1), the chief executive must refuse the application.

Regulation 13A: inserted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 4 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

*Approval of programme providers14 Approval of persons as individual programme providers

- (1) The approval panel may approve an applicant as an individual programme provider if—
- (a) the application is referred to the panel by the chief executive under regulation 13A(2) or regulation 18(1); and
 - (b) the applicant satisfies the approval panel, by the production of any information that the approval panel reasonably requires, that—
 - (i) the applicant meets the requirements of regulation 15(1), (2), and (4); and
 - (ii) the programme that the applicant wishes to provide meets the requirements of regulation 26.
- (2) An approval may be unconditional or subject to conditions imposed by the chief executive under regulation 18.

Regulation 14: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 5 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

15 Requirements for approval as individual programme providers

- (1) Every applicant for approval as an individual programme provider must have the following:
- (a) knowledge and understanding of the nature and effects of domestic violence;
 - (b) knowledge and understanding of the dynamics of violent domestic relationships;
 - (c) knowledge of, and skills and expertise in relation to, the client group for which the applicant wishes to provide a programme;
 - (d) where the application relates to the provision of a group programme, group facilitation skills;
 - (e) where persons in the client group for which the applicant wishes to provide a programme are likely to be primarily Maori, knowledge and understanding of tikanga Maori, including the Maori values and concepts set out in regulation 27;
 - (f) where persons in the client group for which the applicant wishes to provide a programme are likely to belong primarily to any other cultural or ethnic group, knowledge and understanding of the relevant values and beliefs of that group.

- (2) Where—
- (a) an applicant applies for approval as an individual programme provider; and
 - (b) at any time within the 3 years immediately before the date of the application,—
 - (i) the applicant has been a protected person; or
 - (ii) the applicant has been the victim of a domestic violence offence,—the applicant must show that he or she has addressed the effects of domestic violence on his or her own life.
- (3) An applicant must not be approved as an individual programme provider if, at any time within the 3 years immediately before the date of the application,—
- (a) a protection order has been made against the applicant; or
 - (b) the applicant has been convicted of a domestic violence offence.
- (4) Subject to subclause (3), where—
- (a) an applicant applies for approval as an individual programme provider; and
 - (b) at any time, whether before or after the commencement of these regulations,—
 - (i) a protection order has been made against the applicant; or
 - (ii) the applicant has been convicted of a domestic violence offence,—the applicant must not be approved unless the applicant shows that he or she has accepted responsibility for his or her violent behaviour.

16 Further requirements for approval as individual programme providers

- (1) Every applicant for approval as an individual programme provider must,—

- (a) be a member of a professional body, or accountable to an organisation, being a body or organisation which, in the opinion of the chief executive, has in place—
 - (i) a code of ethics or practice; and
 - (ii) an effective complaints procedure; and
 - (iii) an appropriate level of continuing education for its members or for the people who are accountable to it, as the case may be; and
 - (b) where the applicant holds himself or herself out as being a member of a professional body of the kind referred to in paragraph (a), hold such current membership of that body as permits the applicant to practise his or her profession without limitation or restriction; and
 - (c) receive an appropriate level of peer supervision or peer review, whether that supervision or review is provided by a professional body or organisation of the kind referred to in paragraph (a) or otherwise.
- (2) Every applicant for approval as an individual programme provider must have in place systems that will—
- (a) ensure the assessment and ongoing review of the needs of people attending programmes that the applicant provides; and
 - (b) provide for communication between the applicant and any other programme provider who is providing a programme to any other person who is protected by, or subject to, the same protection order; and
 - (c) ensure, to the greatest extent possible, the safety of every person during his or her attendance at programmes provided by the applicant; and
 - (d) provide for regular monitoring and evaluation of the effectiveness of such programmes and the presentation of such programmes.

Regulation 16(1)(a): amended, on 25 November 2002, by regulation 3 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations (No 2) 2002 (SR 2002/365).

17 Chief executive may make determinations relating to approval of individual programme providers

[Revoked]

Regulation 17: revoked, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 6 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

18 Conditional approval of individual programme providers

- (1) Despite regulations 15 and 16, the chief executive, if he or she considers it appropriate, may refer an application to the approval panel if the chief executive is satisfied that an applicant for approval as an individual programme provider—
 - (a) is not a member of a professional body of the kind referred to in regulation 16(1)(a), but is taking steps to attain such membership; or
 - (b) is a member of a professional body of the kind referred to in regulation 16(1)(b), but—
 - (i) is limited or restricted in the way in which he or she is permitted by that body to practice his or her profession; and
 - (ii) is taking steps to have those limits or restrictions removed.
- (2) If the approval panel approves an applicant as an individual programme provider under regulation 14, following the reference of the application to the panel under subclause (1), the approval of the applicant as an individual programme provider is subject to any conditions imposed by the chief executive.
- (3) The period for which a conditional approval is in force is 1 year.

Regulation 18: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 7 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

19 Effect of approval as individual programme provider

The effect of the approval of a person as an individual programme provider is that the person is a programme provider who may, in accordance with the terms of his or her approval, provide the programme specified in his or her approval.

19A Assessment of organisations by chief executive

- (1) The chief executive—

- (a) must assess, under subclause (2), an application for approval as an approved agency that is made in response to a call for applications under regulation 12:
 - (b) may, but need not, assess, under subclause (2), an application for approval as an approved agency that is not made in response to a call for applications under regulation 12.
- (2) If an application by an organisation for approval as an approved agency is assessed by the chief executive, the chief executive must refer it to the approval panel if the applicant satisfies the chief executive, by the production of any information that the chief executive reasonably requires, that the applicant meets the requirements of regulation 22.
- (3) For the purposes of subclause (2), the chief executive may, instead of requiring the applicant to produce further information, rely on—
 - (a) any previous determination made by the chief executive in connection with a previous application by the applicant that the applicant meets the requirements of regulation 22:
 - (b) any previous determination made by an approval panel before the commencement of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 in connection with a previous application by the applicant that the applicant meets the requirements of regulation 22.
- (4) If the chief executive decides, under subclause (1)(b), not to assess an application or if the application is assessed under subclause (2) but the chief executive is not satisfied that the applicant meets the requirements of regulation 22, the chief executive must refuse the application.

Regulation 19A: inserted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 8 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

Approval of approved agencies

20 Approval of organisations as approved agencies

- (1) If an applicant is an organisation, the approval panel may approve the applicant as an approved agency if—
 - (a) the application is referred to the panel by the chief executive under regulation 19A(2); and

- (b) the applicant satisfies the approval panel, by the production of any information that the approval panel reasonably requires, that—
 - (i) the applicant meets the requirements of regulation 21; and
 - (ii) the programme that the applicant wishes to provide meets the requirements of regulation 26.
- (2) Without limiting subclause (1), an approval panel may require the applicant to provide information on all or any of the following matters to assist the approval panel in assessing whether or not the applicant meets the requirements of regulation 21:
 - (a) the persons who the organisation proposes to authorise to provide programmes, including (without limitation)—
 - (i) the full names and addresses of those persons; and
 - (ii) a summary of the knowledge, skills, and expertise of those persons:
 - (b) the date on which the organisation was established;
 - (c) the objectives and functions of the organisation;
 - (d) whether the organisation has, in the past, provided programmes similar to those for which the applicant seeks approval.

Regulation 20: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 9 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

21 Requirements for approval as approved agencies

- (1) Subject to subclause (2)(b) of this regulation, every applicant for approval as an approved agency must have in place a system which ensures that only those persons who meet the requirements set out in regulation 15 are authorised by that agency to provide programmes.
- (2) Every applicant for approval as an approved agency must have in place systems which ensure that, where the approved agency authorises any person to provide a programme,—
 - (a) the authority has effect for a stated period, being not more than the duration of the agency's approval; and

- (b) the authority is made subject to conditions if the agency is satisfied that any of the circumstances set out in any of paragraphs (a) and (b) of regulation 18(1) applies; and
- (c) the authority is varied, or the conditions imposed on the authority are discharged, if the agency is satisfied that the authorised person meets those conditions; and
- (d) the authority is reviewed at regular intervals, taking into account—
 - (i) whether the authorised person continues to meet the requirements of regulation 15; and
 - (ii) where regulation 22(2) applies, whether the authorised person continues to meet the requirements of regulation 16(1),—
 - (iii) [Revoked]
for the purpose of determining whether the authority should be renewed when it expires; and
- (e) the authority is cancelled,—
 - (i) if the authorised person no longer meets all or any of the requirements of regulation 15; or
 - (ii) where regulation 22(2) applies, if the authorised person no longer meets all or any of the requirements of regulation 16(1); or
 - (iii) if the authorised person ceases to provide the programme for the agency.

Regulation 21(2)(b): amended, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 10(a) of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

Regulation 21(2)(d)(ii): amended, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 10(b) of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

Regulation 21(2)(d)(iii): revoked, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 10(c) of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

22 Further requirements for approval as approved agencies

- (1) Subject to subclause (2), every applicant for approval as an approved agency must have in place, or be accountable to another organisation which has in place,—
 - (a) a code of ethics or practice; and
 - (b) an effective complaints procedure; and

- (c) a relevant level of continuing education and an appropriate level of peer supervision or peer review for authorised persons.
- (2) An applicant for approval as an approved agency is not required to meet the requirements of subclause (1) of this regulation where, subject to regulation 21(2)(b), that applicant has in place a system which ensures that only those persons who meet the requirements of regulation 16(1) are authorised by that agency to provide programmes.
- (3) Every applicant for approval as an approved agency must have in place systems that will—
 - (a) ensure the assessment and ongoing review of the needs of people attending programmes that the applicant provides; and
 - (b) provide for communication between the authorised person and any other programme provider who is providing a programme to any other person who is protected by, or subject to, the same protection order; and
 - (c) ensure, to the greatest extent possible, the safety of every person during his or her attendance at programmes provided by the applicant; and
 - (d) provide for regular monitoring and evaluation of the effectiveness of such programmes and the presentation of such programmes.

23 Chief executive may make determinations relating to approval of approved agencies

[Revoked]

Regulation 23: revoked, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 11 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

24 Effect of approval as approved agency

- (1) The effect of the approval of an organisation as an approved agency is that the organisation is a programme provider that may, in accordance with the terms of the agency's approval,—
 - (a) authorise persons to provide such programme or programmes as are set out in the agency's approval; and
 - (b) vary, renew, and cancel those authorisations.
- (2) For the avoidance of doubt, an approved agency—

- (a) may not provide a programme until the agency has, in accordance with these regulations, authorised the necessary person or persons to do so; and
- (b) may not authorise a person or persons to provide a programme which is not an approved programme in respect of that agency.

25 Notification of authorised persons

Every approved agency must supply the chief executive with the names of those persons who are for the time being authorised by the agency to provide programmes—

- (a) within 2 months after the date of the agency's approval; and
- (b) after that, whenever the name of any person is added to, or removed from, the agency's list of persons who are authorised to provide programmes; and
- (c) at any other times that the chief executive may require.

Regulation 25: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 12 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

Approval of programmes

26 Contents and presentation of programmes

Every programme must meet the following requirements:

- (a) the content of the programme must be consistent with the object of the Act (as set out in section 5 of the Act);
- (b) the programme must be designed to be presented in a manner that—
 - (i) is consistent with the object of the Act; and
 - (ii) respects the cultural values and beliefs of the people attending the programme;
- (c) where the programme is designed for Maori or will be provided in circumstances where the persons attending the programme are primarily Maori, the programme must take into account tikanga Maori, including the Maori values and concepts set out in regulation 27;
- (d) where the programme is to be provided to adult protected persons, the programme must—
 - (i) have the primary objective and the goals required by regulation 28; and

- (ii) be structured in accordance with regulation 29:
- (e) where the programme is to be provided to protected persons who are children, the programme must—
 - (i) have the primary objective and the goals required by regulation 30; and
 - (ii) be structured in accordance with regulation 31:
- (f) where the programme is to be provided to respondents or associated respondents, the programme must—
 - (i) have the primary objective and the goal required by regulation 32; and
 - (ii) be structured in accordance with regulation 33:
- (g) the programme must provide for the assessment and on-going review of the needs of the people attending the programme.

27 Maori values and concepts

Every programme that is designed for Maori or that will be provided in circumstances where the persons attending the programme are primarily Maori, must take into account tikanga Maori, including (without limitation) the following Maori values and concepts:

- (a) mana wahine (the prestige attributed to women):
- (b) mana tane (the prestige attributed to men):
- (c) tiaki tamariki (the importance of the safeguarding and rearing of children):
- (d) whanaungatanga (family relationships and their importance):
- (e) taha wairua (the spiritual dimension of a healthy person):
- (f) taha hinengaro (the psychological dimension of a healthy person):
- (g) taha tinana (the physical dimension of a healthy person).

Programmes for adult protected persons

28 Goals of programmes for adult protected persons

- (1) Every programme for adult protected persons must have the primary objective of promoting (whether by education, information, support, or otherwise) the protection of those persons from domestic violence.

- (2) Every programme for adult protected persons must have the following goals:
- (a) to empower the protected person to deal with the effects of domestic violence by educating, informing, and supporting that person, and building that person's self-esteem;
 - (b) to increase understanding about the nature and effects of domestic violence, including the intergenerational cycle of violence;
 - (c) to raise the protected person's awareness of the social, cultural, and historical context in which domestic violence occurs, in order to help that person to put past experiences in perspective;
 - (d) to assist the protected person to assess safety issues and to put in place strategies to maximise that person's safety;
 - (e) to provide the protected person with information about—
 - (i) the effect of protection orders and the way in which the Act operates; and
 - (ii) the building of support networks; and
 - (iii) the availability, content and benefits of programmes for protected persons who are children, and how to request such programmes; and
 - (iv) the content of programmes for respondents or associated respondents, and the obligations placed on respondents or associated respondents in relation to those programmes;
 - (f) to assist the protected person to develop realistic expectations of behavioural and attitudinal change in the respondent or associated respondent;
 - (g) to assist the protected person to identify and explore options for the future.

29 Structure of programmes for adult protected persons

Every programme for adult protected persons must—

- (a) be structured so as to ensure that the primary objective and the goals set out in regulation 28 are capable of being met during the programme; and

- (b) where the programme is a group programme,—
 - (i) consist of a specified number of programme sessions the total duration of which is not less than 20 hours and not more than 40 hours; and
 - (ii) be presented to 1 gender only; and
 - (iii) be limited to 16 people per programme (excluding the presenter); and
 - (iv) where possible in the circumstances, be presented by 2 programme providers if the number of people attending the programme exceeds 8; and
- (c) where the programme is an individual programme, consist of a specified number of programme sessions the total duration of which is not less than 9 hours and not more than 12 hours; and
- (d) include, at the request of a protected person attending the programme, a final separate session for that protected person where strategies to enhance the ongoing safety and support of that protected person are developed with such members of the protected person's family or whanau as the protected person has requested be present.

Programmes for children

30 Goals of children's programmes

- (1) Every programme for protected persons who are children must have the primary objective of assisting those children to deal with the effects of domestic violence.
- (2) Every programme for protected persons who are children must have the following goals:
 - (a) to assist the child to express his or her feelings, including feelings of hurt, pain, guilt, shame, and isolation in order to assist the child to deal with the effects of domestic violence;
 - (b) to assist the child to develop a sense of normality, a healthy self-image, and to build self-esteem;
 - (c) to assist the child to deal with issues arising from separation or loss:

- (d) to assist the child to gain a realistic perspective of the events leading to the making of the protection order, including the child's involvement in those events:
- (e) to assist the child to understand the events following the making of the protection order, including the changes in the child's family life, and the options for the future:
- (f) to help the child to build a support network:
- (g) to assist the child to assess safety issues and to put in place strategies to maximise that child's safety:
- (h) to strengthen the bond between the child and his or her caregiver:
- (i) to assist the child to develop—
 - (i) social skills and improve his or her competency in social relationships, including social relationships with the child's peers; and
 - (ii) strategies for non-violent conflict resolution and to learn anxiety management techniques and anger management techniques.

31 Structure of children's programmes

- (1) Every programme for protected persons who are children must—
 - (a) be structured so as to ensure that the primary objective and the goals set out in regulation 30 are capable of being met during the programme; and
 - (b) provide for the involvement of caregivers wherever possible during the programme; and
 - (c) where the programme is a group programme, provide that the group of children attending the programme sessions must not exceed—
 - (i) 3 children, where the programme is to be presented by 1 programme provider; and
 - (ii) 8 children, where the programme is to be presented by 2 programme providers; and
 - (d) where the programme is to be presented by 2 programme providers, provide if possible that those programme providers are different genders.

- (2) Every programme for protected persons who are children must consist of a specified number of programme sessions which must—
- (a) consist of an initial interview—
 - (i) to assess the child’s needs and the suitability of the programme for that child; and
 - (ii) which does not exceed 2 hours; and
 - (iii) at which the child, the child’s caregiver, and such members of the child’s family or whanau (other than the respondent or associated respondent) as the caregiver has requested are present; and
 - (b) consist of such other sessions the total duration of which is not more than—
 - (i) 20 hours, where the programme is a group programme; or
 - (ii) 10 hours, where the programme is an individual programme—
including, where requested by the child’s caregiver, a final separate session for that child with the caregiver and such members of the child’s family or whanau as the caregiver has requested be present.

Programmes for respondents

32 Goal of respondents’ programmes

- (1) Every programme for respondents or associated respondents must have the primary objective of stopping or preventing domestic violence on the part of those respondents or associated respondents.
- (2) Every programme for respondents or associated respondents must have the goal of changing the behaviour of those respondents or associated respondents by—
 - (a) increasing understanding about the nature and effects of domestic violence, including the intergenerational cycle of violence; and
 - (b) increasing understanding about the object of the Act and the way in which the Act operates, including the effect of protection orders and the consequences of breaching protection orders; and

- (c) increasing understanding about the social, cultural, and historical context in which domestic violence occurs; and
- (d) increasing understanding about the impact of domestic violence on the victim, including its effect on children; and
- (e) increasing understanding about the effect that patterns of abusive behaviour have on the victim; and
- (f) developing skills to deal with potential conflicts in non-abusive ways.

33 Structure of respondents' programmes

Every programme for respondents or associated respondents must—

- (a) be structured so as to ensure that the primary objective and the goal set out in regulation 32 are capable of being met during the programme; and
- (b) where the programme is a group programme,—
 - (i) consist of a specified number of programme sessions the total duration of which is not less than 30 hours and not more than 50 hours; and
 - (ii) have a duration of not more than 3 hours per session; and
 - (iii) be limited to 16 people per programme (excluding the presenter); and
 - (iv) where possible in the circumstances, be presented by 2 programme providers if the number of people attending the programme sessions exceeds 8; and
- (c) where the programme is an individual programme, consist of a specified number of programme sessions the total duration of which is not less than 9 hours and not more than 12 hours; and
- (d) where the programme is to be presented by 2 programme providers, provide if possible that those programme providers are different genders; and
- (e) involve the use of well-founded methodologies which have been shown to be effective in stopping or preventing domestic violence.

Regulation 33(b)(ii): amended, on 2 October 2008, by regulation 4 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2008 (SR 2008/288).

Duration of approvals

34 Duration of approval

- (1) An approval—
 - (a) comes into force on the date of its issue; and
 - (b) continues in force until it is cancelled under any of regulations 40 to 42.
- (2) Subclause (1)(b) is subject to regulation 18(3).

Regulation 34: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 13 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

Notification of change in circumstances

35 Notification of change in circumstances

- (1) An individual programme provider or approved agency must, as soon as practicable, notify the chief executive of any change in his or her or the agency's circumstances where that change may affect his or her or the agency's status as a programme provider.
- (2) The chief executive must notify a change of circumstances to the approval panel if the chief executive is satisfied, whether on the basis of any notification made under subclause (1) or otherwise, that there has been a change of circumstances that may provide the approval panel with grounds for the cancellation of the approval of an individual programme provider as a programme provider or the cancellation of an agency's approval as an approved agency.
- (3) Despite subclause (2), the chief executive is not obliged to notify any change of circumstances to the approval panel if, as a consequence of that change of circumstances, the chief executive—
 - (a) cancels a person's approval as an individual programme provider under regulation 40(1A) or an agency's approval as an approved agency under regulation 41(1A); or
 - (b) decides—

- (i) not to cancel a person's approval as an individual programme provider under regulation 40(1A) or an agency's approval as an approved agency under regulation 41(1A); and
- (ii) that the change of circumstances does not provide any other ground for cancellation of an approval.

Regulation 35(1): amended, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 14(1) of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

Regulation 35(2): added, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 14(2) of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

Regulation 35(3): added, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 14(2) of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

Variation of approvals

36 Variation of approval

- (1) Where a person is approved as an individual programme provider subject to conditions imposed under regulation 18, that person may, at any time, apply to chief executive for a variation of the approval or a discharge of those conditions.
- (2) Where an application has been made under subclause (1), chief executive must consider the application and may confirm the conditions, vary the approval, or discharge those conditions.

Regulation 36(1): amended, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 15 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

Cancellation of approvals

40 Cancellation of approval of individual programme provider

- (1) Subject to regulation 45, the approval panel may at any time cancel a person's approval as an individual programme provider if the approval panel is satisfied that—
- (a) the individual programme provider no longer meets all or any of the requirements of regulation 15 or regulation 16 that applied when the provider applied for approval; or
 - (b) the information given in support of the application for approval as an individual programme provider was false or misleading, and that information was material to the decision of the approval panel to approve the person; or
 - (c) [Revoked]
 - (d) the individual programme provider is no longer a suitable person to provide a programme, for any of the following reasons:
 - (i) the way in which that individual programme provider is presenting the programme conflicts with the object of the Act;
 - (ii) the individual programme provider has been convicted of an offence that reflects adversely on the suitability of that person to provide the programme; or
 - (e) the programme that the provider is approved to provide does not or no longer meets, in a significant respect, all or any of the requirements of regulation 26.

- (1A) Subject to regulation 45, the chief executive may, at any time, cancel a person's approval as an individual programme provider—
- (a) if—
 - (i) that approval is subject to conditions; and
 - (ii) the chief executive is satisfied that that person is not making reasonable progress towards meeting any of those conditions; or
 - (b) the individual programme provider no longer meets all or any of the requirements of regulation 15(3) or regulation 16 that applied when the provider applied for approval.
- (2) For the avoidance of doubt, the cancellation of an approval held by an individual programme provider does not affect any other approvals also held by that person.

Regulation 40(1)(c): revoked, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 17(1)(c) of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

Regulation 40(1A): inserted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 17(2) of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

41 Cancellation of approval as approved agency

- (1) Subject to regulation 45, the approval panel may at any time cancel an agency's approval as an approved agency if the approval panel is satisfied that—
- (a) the agency no longer meets all or any of the requirements of regulation 21 or regulation 22 that applied when the provider applied for approval; or
 - (b) the information given in support of the application for approval as an approved agency was false or misleading, and that information was material to the decision of the approval panel to approve the organisation; or
 - (c) the agency has, without reasonable excuse, authorised a person to provide a programme for that agency when that person does not meet all or any of the relevant requirements of these regulations; or

- (d) the agency has failed to cancel an authority of an authorised person where that person no longer meets all or any of the relevant requirements of these regulations; or
 - (e) the approved agency is no longer a suitable organisation to provide a programme, for any of the following reasons:
 - (i) the agency has failed to cancel the authority of an authorised person where that person is presenting a programme in a way that conflicts with the object of the Act;
 - (ii) the agency has failed to cancel the authority of an authorised person where that person has been convicted of an offence that reflects adversely on the suitability of that person to provide the programme; or
 - (f) the programme being presented does not or no longer meets, in a significant respect, all or any of the requirements of regulation 26.
- (1A) Subject to regulation 45, the chief executive may, at any time, cancel an agency's approval as an approved agency if the chief executive is satisfied that the agency no longer meets all or any of the requirements of regulation 22 that applied when the provider applied for approval.
- (2) If the approval panel or the chief executive cancels the approval of an agency under subclause (1) or subclause (1A) every authority given by that agency, to persons to provide programmes to which that approval relates is deemed to be cancelled.
- (3) For the avoidance of doubt, the cancellation of an approval held by an approved agency does not affect any other approvals also held by that organisation.

Regulation 45(3): amended, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 21(2)(a) of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

Regulation 45(3): amended, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 21(2)(b) of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

Part 4

Constitution and functions of approval panel

Part 4: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 22 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

46 Constitution and functions of approval panel

The approval panel, whose members are appointed under regulation 47, has the following functions:

- (a) responsibility for approving programme providers and programmes in accordance with these regulations:
- (b) any other functions given to the panel under these regulations.

Regulation 46: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 22 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

47 Appointment of members to approval panels

- (1) The chief executive must, by notice in the Gazette, appoint the members of the approval panel.
- (2) Until the close of 31 July 2005, the approval panel may have a maximum of 10 members, including—
 - (a) 1 member who is an employee or representative of the Ministry of Justice and who is the chairperson of the panel:
 - (b) up to 9 other persons who have knowledge and understanding of the dynamics of domestic violence:
 - (c) at least 5 members who have expertise in tikanga Māori (including the Māori values and concepts set out in

- regulation 27), and a knowledge and understanding of the impact of domestic violence on Māori communities:
- (d) at least 2 members who have expertise in Pacific culture, and knowledge and understanding of the impact of domestic violence on Pacific communities:
 - (e) at least 2 members who have skills or experience in relation to adult victims of domestic violence:
 - (f) at least 2 members who have skills or experience in working with children:
 - (g) at least 2 members who have skills or experience in relation to persons who use domestic violence against others.
- (3) On and after 1 August 2005, the approval panel may have a maximum of 10 members whose collective ethnic composition reflects, so far as is practicable, the anticipated likely ethnic composition of the persons and groups who participate in programmes, including—
- (a) 1 member who is an employee or representative of the Ministry of Justice and who is the chairperson of the panel:
 - (b) up to 9 other members who have knowledge and understanding of the dynamics of domestic violence:
 - (c) at least 2 members who have skills or experience in working with children:
 - (d) at least 2 members who have skills or experience in relation to adult victims of domestic violence:
 - (e) at least 2 members who have skills or experience in relation to persons who use domestic violence against others.

Regulation 47: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 22 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

Regulation 47(2)(a): amended, on 1 October 2003, pursuant to section 14(1) of the State Sector Amendment Act 2003 (2003 No 41).

Regulation 47(3)(a): amended, on 1 October 2003, pursuant to section 14(1) of the State Sector Amendment Act 2003 (2003 No 41).

48 Procedure for appointment of members

- (1) The chief executive must not appoint any person to the approval panel under regulation 47 unless the chief executive has,—

- (a) in a manner that the chief executive considers appropriate, called for nominations from interested persons and organisations; and
 - (b) considered any nominations.
- (2) Despite subclause (1), the chief executive must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the following are notified that nominations are being sought for the appointment of members to the approval panel:
 - (a) persons and organisations who the chief executive considers have a professional or practical interest in programmes:
 - (b) the Māori community, including—
 - (i) the Māori Women’s Welfare League; and
 - (ii) Māori organisations with an interest in the provision of programmes; and
 - (iii) any other members of the Māori community, or other Māori organisations, that the chief executive considers should be notified:
 - (c) the Pacific community, including—
 - (i) Pacific organisations with an interest in the provision of programmes; and
 - (ii) any other members of the Pacific community, or other Pacific organisations, that the chief executive considers should be notified.
- (3) Any nominations made under subclause (1) must be made in writing and by the date specified by the chief executive when he or she calls for nominations.
- (4) Subclause (5) applies if the chief executive has called for nominations under subclause (1), but—
 - (a) no nominations have been made by the specified date; or
 - (b) insufficient nominations have been made to fill the number of appointments that must be made; or
 - (c) insufficient persons have been nominated who meet the requirements of regulation 47(2) or (3), whichever is applicable.
- (5) If this subclause applies, the chief executive may, after any further consultation that the chief executive considers appropriate with interested persons and the Māori community and

Pacific community, appoint as members of the approval panel a person or persons who meet the requirements of regulation 47(2) or (3), whichever is applicable.

Regulation 48: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 22 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

49 Terms of members

- (1) A member of the approval panel holds office for a term of 3 years.
- (2) Despite subclause (1), the chief executive must appoint members of the approval panel so that all the terms of the members of the approval panel expire with the close of 31 July in the same year.
- (3) Unless the member sooner vacates office under regulation 56, every member continues to hold office until the member's successor comes into office, despite the expiry of the term for which the member was appointed.
- (4) If a member continues in office for any period after the expiry of the member's term, his or her successor's term of office is reduced by that period.
- (5) A member of the approval panel is eligible for reappointment from time to time, but subject to that member meeting the requirements of regulation 47(2) or (3), whichever is applicable.
- (6) This regulation is subject to regulations 50 to 56.

Regulation 49: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 22 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

50 Terms of departmental members

Every member of the approval panel who is appointed under regulation 47(2)(a) or (3)(a) holds office at the pleasure of the chief executive.

Regulation 50: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 22 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

51 Vacancies in membership

- (1) If a member of the approval panel dies or resigns or is removed from office or vacates office, the vacancy must be filled by the appointment of another member in accordance with subclause (2).

- (2) Despite regulation 48, if there is a vacancy in the membership of the approval panel under subclause (1), the chief executive must, after consultation with any interested persons or organisations that the chief executive considers appropriate, appoint as a member of that approval panel a person who meets the requirements of regulation 47(2) or (3), whichever is applicable.
- (3) Subject to regulation 49(3), if a member is appointed under this regulation, the member holds office for the period beginning on the date of his or her appointment and ending with the close of the date on which the vacating member's term of office would, but for that vacancy, have expired.
- (4) The powers of the approval panel are not affected by any vacancy in its membership.

Regulation 51: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 22 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

52 Co-opted members

- (1) The approval panel may, from time to time, with the prior approval of the chief executive, co-opt a person to be a member of the approval panel, either generally or for the purpose of assisting with—
 - (a) a particular application for approval or the cancellation of a particular approval; or
 - (b) a particular class of applications for approval or the cancellation of a particular class of approvals.
- (2) Despite subclause (1), a person may be co-opted under subclause (1) only if the members of the approval panel agree that the person will assist the approval panel to fulfil its functions under these regulations, and if that person has—
 - (a) knowledge and understanding of the dynamics of domestic violence; and
 - (b) relevant skills or relevant knowledge or a relevant cultural perspective additional to the skills or knowledge or cultural perspective of the members of the approval panel.
- (3) The chief executive may co-opt a person to be a member of the approval panel if—
 - (a) an approval panel is unable to agree on—

- (i) the need to co-opt a person under subclause (1); or
- (ii) who should be co-opted under that subclause;
and
- (b) the chief executive considers it desirable to co-opt a person.

Regulation 52: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 22 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

53 Terms and powers of co-opted members

- (1) Subject to regulation 56, every person co-opted to be a member of the approval panel under regulation 52 holds office,—
 - (a) if he or she is co-opted for the purpose of assisting with a particular application for approval or the cancellation of a particular approval, for the period required to consider and determine that matter:
 - (b) if he or she is co-opted for the purpose of assisting with a particular class of applications for approval or the cancellation of a particular class of approvals, for the period specified by the approval panel (if he or she was co-opted by the approval panel) or for the period specified by the chief executive (if he or she was co-opted by the chief executive):
 - (c) in any other case, for the period commencing on the date of his or her appointment and ending with the close of 31 July in the year in which the terms of office of the current members of the approval panel expire.
- (2) A co-opted member of the approval panel is to be treated, for the purposes of these regulations, as a member of the approval panel only in respect of,—
 - (a) if he or she is co-opted for the purpose of assisting with a particular application for approval or the cancellation of a particular approval, that matter:
 - (b) if he or she is co-opted for the purpose of assisting with a particular class of applications for approval or the cancellation of a particular class of approvals, those matters,—and, subject to regulation 65, may vote only in respect of the particular matter or class of matters, as the case may be.

- (3) Subject to regulation 65, if a co-opted member has been co-opted generally, he or she is to be treated, for the purposes of these regulations, as a member of the approval panel and is entitled to take part in the approval panel's proceedings in relation to any matter, and to vote on any such matter.

Regulation 53: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 22 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

54 Appointment of deputies

- (1) The chief executive may, by notice in the Gazette, appoint any person to be the deputy of any member or members of the approval panel.
- (2) Despite subclause (1), every deputy who is appointed under subclause (1),—
- (a) in the case of a deputy of a member appointed under regulation 47(2)(a) or (3)(a),—
- (i) must be an employee or representative of the Ministry of Justice; and
- (ii) must not be appointed as the deputy of any other member of the approval panel; and
- (b) in the case of a deputy of any other member or members, must have—
- (i) knowledge and understanding of the dynamics of domestic violence; and
- (ii) skills or experience in the same area as the member or members in respect of whom he or she will act as deputy.
- (3) Every deputy may act for any member for whom he or she is appointed during any period for which the member is prevented by absence, illness, conflict of interest, or other cause from performing the member's duties of office.
- (4) If any person attends any meeting of the approval panel as the deputy of any member of the approval panel, that person must be treated as a member of the approval panel, and the fact that the person attends is sufficient evidence of that person's authority to do so.

Regulation 54: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 22 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

Regulation 54(2)(a)(i): amended, on 1 October 2003, pursuant to section 14(1) of the State Sector Amendment Act 2003 (2003 No 41).

55 Terms of appointment of deputies

Subject to regulation 56, a deputy of any member of the approval panel holds office for the term that is specified by the chief executive in the deputy's notice of appointment, but in no case may the deputy's term of office exceed the term of office of all the members in respect of whom he or she acts as deputy.

Regulation 55: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 22 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

56 Removal or resignation from office

- (1) The chief executive may, at any time, remove from office a member of the approval panel (including a co-opted member and a deputy) for inability affecting performance of duty, bankruptcy, or misconduct proved to the satisfaction of the chief executive.
- (2) A member of the approval panel (including a deputy) may, at any time, resign by written notice to the chief executive.
- (3) A co-opted member of the approval panel may, at any time, resign by written notice to the approval panel (if he or she was co-opted under regulation 52(1)) or by written notice to the chief executive (if he or she was co-opted under regulation 52(3)).

Regulation 56: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 22 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

57 Remuneration and expenses

- (1) There must be paid out of the departmental bank account operated by the Ministry of Justice, to the members of the approval panel (including co-opted members and deputies), remuneration by way of fees or allowances and travelling allowances and expenses in accordance with the Fees and Travelling Allowances Act 1951, and the provisions of that Act apply accordingly as if the approval panel were a statutory Board within the meaning of that Act.

- (2) Nothing in this regulation applies to a person who is a member of the approval panel (including a co-opted member and a deputy) in his or her capacity as an employee or representative of the Ministry of Justice.

Regulation 57: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 22 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

Regulation 57(1): amended, on 1 October 2003, pursuant to section 14(1) of the State Sector Amendment Act 2003 (2003 No 41).

Regulation 57(2): amended, on 1 October 2003, pursuant to section 14(1) of the State Sector Amendment Act 2003 (2003 No 41).

General powers of approval panel

Heading: inserted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 22 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

58 General powers of approval panel

- (1) In addition to any other powers conferred by these regulations, the approval panel has all the powers that are necessary or expedient to enable the approval panel to perform and exercise its functions and duties.
- (2) Without limiting subclause (1), the approval panel may advise the chief executive on ways in which these regulations might be amended to ensure that the criteria and standards for the approval of programme providers and programmes continue to be appropriate and relevant.

Regulation 58: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 22 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

General powers of approval panels [Revoked]

Conflict of interest

65 Conflict of interest

- (1) Where—
- (a) a matter is before the approval panel; and
 - (b) a member's past or present relationship with, or interest in, a person to whom that matter relates is likely to involve that member in a conflict of interest,—
- that member must, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to the member's knowledge, disclose to the approval panel in writing, the nature of that conflict of interest.
- (2) A member required by subclause (1) to disclose the nature of a conflict of interest in any matter must not—
- (a) be present during any deliberation of the approval panel with respect to that matter; or
 - (b) take part in any decision of the approval panel with respect to that matter,— unless the approval panel is satisfied that the member may participate without infringing the rules of natural justice.

- (3) A member required by subclause (1) to disclose the nature of a conflict of interest in any matter must be disregarded in determining whether or not there is a quorum of the approval panel present for any part of the meeting of the approval panel during which a deliberation or decision of the approval panel relating to the matter takes place or is made.
- (4) [Revoked]

Regulation 65(1)(a): amended, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 28(1) of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

69 Appearance at panel meeting

- (1) A person may appear before the approval panel on any matter if the panel considers that it would be appropriate to allow that person to appear before the panel.
- (2) Subclause (1) is subject to regulation 45.

Regulation 69: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 32 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

70 Constitution of panel if regulation 27 applies to programme

If an application is made for approval to provide a programme to which regulation 27 applies, the approval panel must not consider or approve that application unless at least 1 of the members who consider the application has expertise in tikanga Māori (including the Māori values and concepts set out in regulation 27).

Regulation 70: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 32 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

71 Chief executive to keep register

- (1) The chief executive must cause to be kept and maintained a register in which is recorded, in respect of every approval granted under these regulations, the following particulars:
 - (a) the name of the programme provider;
 - (b) the date on which the approval was granted;
 - (c) the nature of the programme and the client group to which the programme relates;
 - (d) any conditions imposed in respect of the approval of an individual programme provider and,—
 - (i) if the approval is varied, the date on which the approval is varied; and

- (ii) if the conditions are discharged, the date on which the conditions are discharged:
 - (e) the name of the professional body or organisation of which the programme provider is a member or to which the programme provider is accountable:
 - (f) if the approval is cancelled, the date on which the approval is cancelled.
- (2) The approval panel must supply to the chief executive the particulars that will enable the chief executive to fulfil the requirements of subclause (1) as soon as practicable after—
 - (a) the approval panel has granted an approval; or
 - (b) the approval panel has cancelled an approval.
- (3) The chief executive—
 - (a) must keep the register open for public inspection, without fee, during ordinary office hours at the head office of the Ministry of Justice at Wellington; and
 - (b) must supply to any person copies of all or part of the register on request and on payment of a reasonable charge for the production of the copy.
- (4) The register may be kept in the manner that the chief executive considers appropriate, including, either wholly or partly, by means of a device or facility—
 - (a) that records or stores information electronically or by other means; and
 - (b) that permits the information so recorded to be readily inspected or reproduced in usable form; and
 - (c) that permits the information in the register to be accessed by electronic means, including (without limitation) by means of remote logon access.

Regulation 71: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 32 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

Regulation 71(3)(a): amended, on 1 October 2003, pursuant to section 14(1) of the State Sector Amendment Act 2003 (2003 No 41).

Part 6
Transitional provisions relating to Domestic Violence (Programmes)
Amendment Regulations 2002

Part 6: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 33 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

72 Duration of approvals

- (1) An approval of an individual programme provider or an approved agency that is in force at the close of 30 April 2002 does not expire on the date specified in the approval, but instead continues in effect in accordance with regulation 34 (as substituted by regulation 13 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002).
- (2) Subject to subclause (3)(b), subclause (1) does not apply if—
 - (a) an individual programme provider or an approved agency had received, before the close of 30 April 2002, notice under regulation 45 of a proposed decision to cancel the approval of the provider or agency; and
 - (b) no final decision on whether to cancel the approval had been made by the close of 30 April 2002.
- (3) If subclause (2) applies,—
 - (a) the approval panel that gave notification of the proposed decision to cancel approval must determine whether to cancel that approval (in accordance with the provisions of these regulations as they read before the commencement of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002);
 - (b) if that approval panel decides not to cancel the approval, the expiry of that approval must be determined in accordance with subclause (1).

Regulation 72: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 33 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

73 Applications made or decisions pending before commencement of Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002

- (1) Any application made under these regulations for an approval or for a variation of an approval, but not determined before

1 May 2002, may be dealt with by an approval panel established in respect of a region.

- (2) For the purposes of subclause (1),—
- (a) an application referred to in that subclause must be dealt with under these regulations as they read before the commencement of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002; but
 - (b) any approval once granted or varied must subsequently be treated as if it had been granted or varied in accordance with these regulations (as amended by the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002).

Regulation 73: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 33 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

74 Existing panels and regulations remain in force for certain purposes

For the purposes of regulations 72 and 73,—

- (a) every approval panel established in respect of a region remains in existence for the purpose of considering and determining an application, or determining whether to confirm or set aside a proposed decision by the panel to cancel an approval, despite the abolition of the panel by the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002; and
- (b) every person who was a member of an approval panel at the close of 30 April 2002 continues in office for the purpose of considering and determining an application, or determining whether to confirm or set aside a proposed decision by the panel to cancel an approval, despite the abolition of the panel by the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 or the expiry of the member's term of office; and
- (c) subject to regulations 72(3)(b) and 73(2)(b), the principal regulations continue in force as if the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 had not been made.

Regulation 74: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 33 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

75 Application for renewal of approvals

Every application for renewal of an approval that has been made, but not determined, before 1 May 2002 lapses on that date.

Regulation 75: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 33 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

76 Applications made on or after commencement of Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002

Every application made under the principal regulations, on or after 1 May 2002, must be considered and determined under the principal regulations as amended by the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002.

Regulation 76: substituted, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 33 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

77 Appointment of approval panel

- (1) The chief executive must, as soon as is practicable after 1 May 2002, exercise the powers conferred by regulations 47 and 48 of the principal regulations (as substituted by regulation 22 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002) to appoint members of the approval panel.
- (2) Any decision required to be taken by the approval panel under these regulations (as amended by the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002) may be deferred until the appointment of the members of the approval panel referred to in subclause (1) takes effect.

Regulation 77: added, on 1 May 2002, by regulation 33 of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Amendment Regulations 2002 (SR 2002/103).

Marie Shroff,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Reprints notes

1 General

This is a reprint of the Domestic Violence (Programmes) Regulations 1996 that incorporates all the amendments to those regulations as at the date of the last amendment to them.
