Explanatory note

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order, which comes into force on 29 September 2020, defers the expiry of Part 7A of the Medicines Act 1981 to 30 September 2025. Part 7A imposes restrictions on xenotransplantation.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2012.
Date of notification in Gazette: 10 September 2020.

Notes

1    General

This is a consolidation of the Medicines (Deferral of Expiry of Part 7A) Order 2020 that incorporates the amendments made to the legislation so that it shows the law as at its stated date.

2    Legal status

A consolidation is taken to correctly state, as at its stated date, the law enacted or made by the legislation consolidated and by the amendments. This presumption applies unless the contrary is shown.

Section 78 of the Legislation Act 2019 provides that this consolidation, published as an electronic version, is an official version. A printed version of legislation that is produced directly from this official electronic version is also an official version.

3    Editorial and format changes

The Parliamentary Counsel Office makes editorial and format changes to consolidations using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019. See also PCO editorial conventions for consolidations.

4    Amendments incorporated in this consolidation
