Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 3 May 2022, amend the Russia Sanctions Regulations 2022 (the principal regulations).

All the amendments fulfil the purpose of the regulations, which is to give effect to the Russia Sanctions Act 2022 by imposing sanctions in response to Russia's military actions in relation to Ukraine (and in response to any assistance from any other country or person).

Additional sanctions are added to the sanctions regime as follows:

- new names are added, so that the principal regulations apply to more entities (regulation 4(4)) and more individuals (regulation 5(3)):
- some persons and classes of persons who are already sanctioned by the principal regulations will be subject to further sanctions (regulations 4(2), 4(3), 5(4), and 6(2)):
- a middle name is recorded for an individual already named in the regulations, who will now be subject to further sanctions (regulation 5(1) and (2)):
- a new class of persons is added, namely certain members of the Federation Council of the Federal Assembly (regulation 6(1)).

The names of 2 individuals are removed from the principal regulations (regulation 5(1)).

An erroneous reference to regulation 12 is deleted from Part 1 of Schedule 2 (regulation 4(1)).

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.

Date of notification in Gazette: 2 May 2022.

These regulations are administered by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade.
