Explanatory note

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order, which comes into force on 30 June 2022,—

- fixes the amount of the Health Promotion Agency levy for the financial year beginning on 1 July 2022 for each class of alcohol described in the New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000 (the Act); and
- identifies the variable rate that the Act requires the Minister of Health to determine annually for each of the 3 classes of alcohol described in the table in Schedule 4B of the Act as having a variable rate (classes B, E, and F); and
- revokes the New Zealand Public Health and Disability (Health Promotion Agency Levy) Order 2021.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.
Date of notification in Gazette: 26 May 2022.

Notes*1 General

This is a consolidation of the New Zealand Public Health and Disability (Alcohol Levy) Order 2022 that incorporates the amendments made to the order so that it shows the law as at its stated date.

2 Legal status

A consolidation is taken to correctly state, as at its stated date, the law enacted or made by the legislation consolidated and by the amendments. This presumption applies unless the contrary is shown.

Section 78 of the Legislation Act 2019 provides that this consolidation, published as an electronic version, is an official version. A printed version of legislation that is produced directly from this official electronic version is also an official version.

3 Editorial and format changes

The Parliamentary Counsel Office makes editorial and format changes to consolidations using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019. See also PCO editorial conventions for consolidations.
