Note

The Parliamentary Counsel Office has made editorial and format changes to this version using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019.

Note 4 at the end of this version provides a list of the amendments included in it.

These regulations are administered by the Ministry for Primary Industries.

Regulations

1 Title

These regulations are the Wine Amendment Regulations 2022.

2 Commencement

These regulations come into force on 1 July 2022.

Regulations: confirmed, on 17 December 2022, by section 24(b) of the Secondary Legislation Confirmation Act 2022 (2022 No 82).

3 Principal regulations

These regulations amend the Wine Regulations 2021.

4 Regulation 126 amended (Levies)

In regulation 126(8), replace “Part 2” with “clause 5”.

5 Schedule 1 amended

- (1) In Schedule 1, revoke the Part 2 heading.
- (2) In Schedule 1, clause 5(1)(a), replace “$0.01” with “$0.005”.
- (3) In Schedule 1, replace clause 5(2) with:
 - (2) The rate of the levy prescribed under subclause (1)(a) applies to the 2022 financial year and all subsequent years until a new rate is notified under regulation 126(3).

Michael Webster,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations amend the Wine Regulations 2021 (the principal regulations) so that, until a new levy rate is notified under regulation 126 of the principal regulations, the levy rate for the purposes of that regulation is $0.005 per litre of wine exported. These regulations come into force on 1 July 2022. Before then, the levy rate is $0.01 per litre of wine exported.

These regulations must be confirmed by an Act before the close of 30 June 2023. If they are not confirmed, they will be revoked on the close of that date. See subpart 3 of Part 5 of the Legislation Act 2019.

Regulatory impact statement

The Ministry for Primary Industries produced a regulatory impact statement on 9 March 2022 to help inform the decisions taken by the Government relating to the contents of this instrument.

Notes1 General

This is a consolidation of the Wine Amendment Regulations 2022 that incorporates the amendments made to the legislation so that it shows the law as at its stated date.

2 Legal status

A consolidation is taken to correctly state, as at its stated date, the law enacted or made by the legislation consolidated and by the amendments. This presumption applies unless the contrary is shown.

Section 78 of the Legislation Act 2019 provides that this consolidation, published as an electronic version, is an official version. A printed version of legislation that is produced directly from this official electronic version is also an official version.

3 Editorial and format changes

The Parliamentary Counsel Office makes editorial and format changes to consolidations using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019. See also PCO editorial conventions for consolidations.

4 Amendments incorporated in this consolidation
