Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 21 July 2023, amend the Russia Sanctions Regulations 2022 (the principal regulations).

All the amendments fulfil the purpose of the principal regulations, which is to give effect to the Russia Sanctions Act 2022 by imposing sanctions in response to Russia's military actions in relation to Ukraine (and in response to any assistance given to Russia from any other country or person in connection with those actions).

Regulation 4 adds an exception with the effect that the sanctions do not apply to any dealing that is incidental to, and necessary for the purpose of giving effect to, a dealing that is the subject of another exception.

Regulations 5 and 6 add the names of entities and individuals so that the sanctions regime applies to them. Those entities and individuals are Russian or Belarusian military or economic actors of strategic importance.

Regulations 7 and 8 amend section 31(3) of the Russia Sanctions Act 2022 to add the Immigration Act 2009 to the list of enactments in that section. As a consequence, information supplied or obtained under the Immigration Act 2009 may be used and disclosed in accordance with section 31 of the Russia Sanctions Act 2022.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.

Date of notification in Gazette: 20 July 2023.

These regulations are administered by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade.
