Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 14 April 2023, amend the Russia Sanctions Regulations 2022 (the principal regulations).

All the amendments fulfil the purpose of the principal regulations, which is to give effect to the Russia Sanctions Act 2022 by imposing sanctions in response to Russia's military actions in relation to Ukraine (and in response to any assistance given to Russia by any other country or person in connection with those actions).

These regulations—

- split the list of codes for classes of luxury goods set out in Schedule 1A of the principal regulations into 2 lists (regulation 6);
- introduce, in relation to the luxury goods in one of those lists, a threshold with the effect that the import of an item of one of those luxury goods is not prohibited if the item has a Customs value that does not exceed $1,000 (regulation 5);
- adjust some of the codes for the luxury goods in Schedule 1A (regulation 6).

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.

Date of notification in Gazette: 13 April 2023.

These regulations are administered by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade.
