Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 5 May 2023, amend the Russia Sanctions Regulations 2022 (the principal regulations).

All the amendments fulfil the purpose of the principal regulations, which is to give effect to the Russia Sanctions Act 2022 by imposing sanctions in response to Russia's military actions in relation to Ukraine (and in response to any assistance given to Russia from any other country or person in connection with those actions).

These regulations—

- add the names of entities so that the sanctions regime applies to them (regulation 4);
- add the names of individuals so that the sanctions regime applies to them (regulation 5).

These entities and individuals are part of Russia's military-industrial complex or are Iranian actors providing military support to Russia.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.

Date of notification in Gazette: 4 May 2023.

These regulations are administered by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade.
