Rachel Hayward,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the order but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order, which comes into force on 28 October 2025, is made under section 82 of the Legislation Act 2019. That section enables the revocation of secondary legislation and other instruments that have ceased to have effect, or are no longer required, on the recommendation of the Attorney-General. This order revokes 15 pieces of secondary legislation and other instruments that meet either or both of those criteria.

This order is revoked on 28 April 2026.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.
Date of notification in Gazette: 25 September 2025.

Notes

1 General

This is a consolidation of the Legislation (Revocations) Order 2025 that incorporates the amendments made to the legislation so that it shows the law as at its stated date.

2 Legal status

A consolidation is taken to correctly state, as at its stated date, the law enacted or made by the legislation consolidated and by the amendments. This presumption applies unless the contrary is shown.

Section 78 of the Legislation Act 2019 provides that this consolidation, published as an electronic version, is an official version. A printed version of legislation that is produced directly from this official electronic version is also an official version.

3 Editorial and format changes

The Parliamentary Counsel Office makes editorial and format changes to consolidations using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019. See also PCO editorial conventions for consolidations.

4 Amendments incorporated in this consolidation
